

No. 106 Photographer: Drazen Shejbal, Croatia
Title: hEIIPIc
Anachronism: Hell, EPI, Picture

No. 107 Photographer: Durodami Lisk, Sierra Leone
Title: Will this necklace charm stop my seizures?
A toddler with epilepsy given a necklace by traditional healer.

No. 108 Photographer: Elaine Brown, Canada
Title: My Head Feels Like A Battery Charger
Photo of Elaine Brown

No. 109 Photographer: Eleanor Bennett, UK
Title: Outside in overwhelmed by my body
Shot in Cheshire, UK

No. 110 Photographer: Eleanor Bennett, UK
Title: Mind fire
A feeling of me being overwhelmed by flames.

No. 111 Photographer: Eleanor Bennett, UK
Title: A loud jump
Jumping self portrait.

No. 112 Photographer: Eleanor Bennett, UK
Title: Anger inside
Self-Portrait.

No. 113 Photographer: Eleanor Bennett, UK
Title: Breaking up
Shot in Cheshire, UK

No. 114

No. 114 Photographer: Emanuel (Noel) Portelli, Malta
Title: Knowledge is Power
Knowing what to do, gives you the power to lead a normal life.

No. 115

No. 115 Photographer: Emanuel (Noel) Portelli, Malta
Title: Be Aware
Take control of Epilepsy and lead a normal life.

No. 116

No. 117

No. 118

No. 119

Photographer: Emanuel (Noel) Portelli, Malta

No. 116 Title: Help is at hand
Seek advice from the various support groups and join local associations.

No. 117 Title: Education
Education about Epilepsy is a must.

No. 118 Title: Seek Advice
With a little bit of help one can overcome most difficulties and problems.

No. 119 Title: Teach the Teachers
Teachers should be given special training of how to deal with children with Epilepsy.

No. 120 Photographer: Emanuel (Noel) Portelli, Malta
Title: Ray of Light
Representing a Ray of Hope.