

No. 61      Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: You don't have to bend over backwards to make
Fire poi artist bending over backwards.

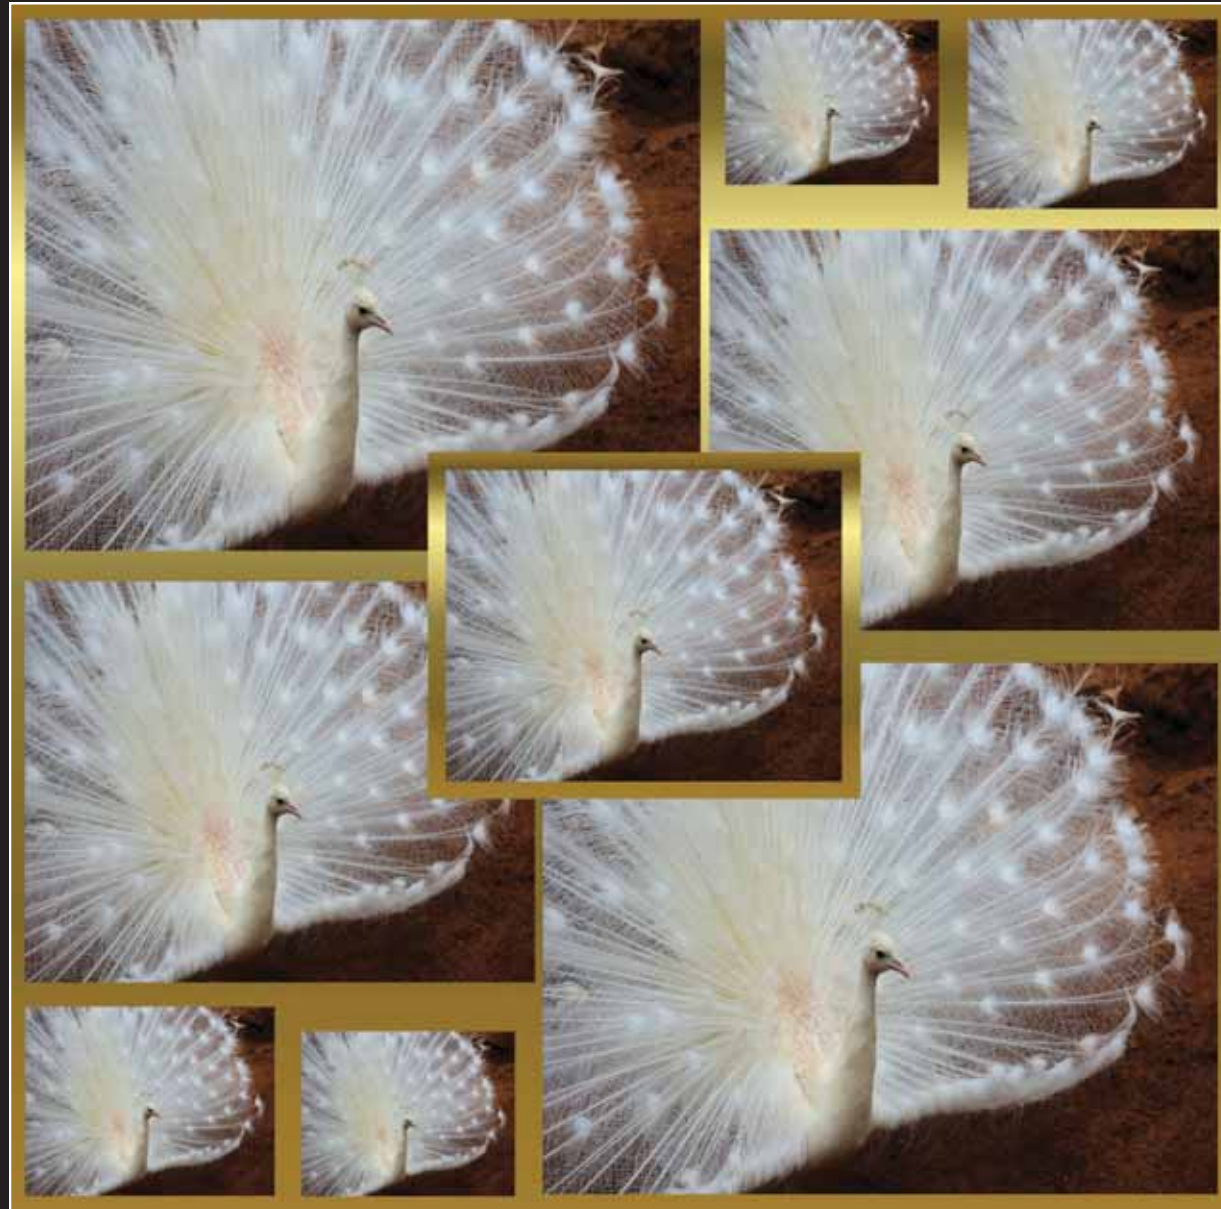

No. 62      Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: Don't turn your back on epilepsy
A peacock displaying his beautiful feathers.

No. 63    Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: Animals and epilepsy
Did you know that animals can have epilepsy too?

No. 64    Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: Tapestry of beauty
Albino peacock—Don't hide away!

No. 65    Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: Cockatoo Smooth landing
Representing the cure and freedom from epilepsy.

No. 66

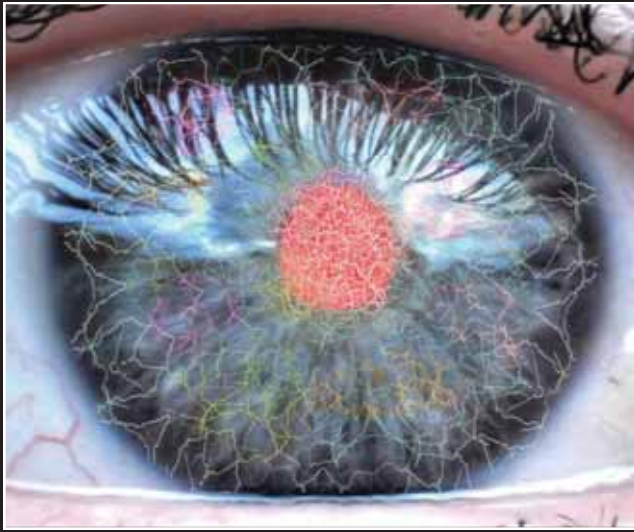

No. 66 Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: It's not Impossible

No. 67

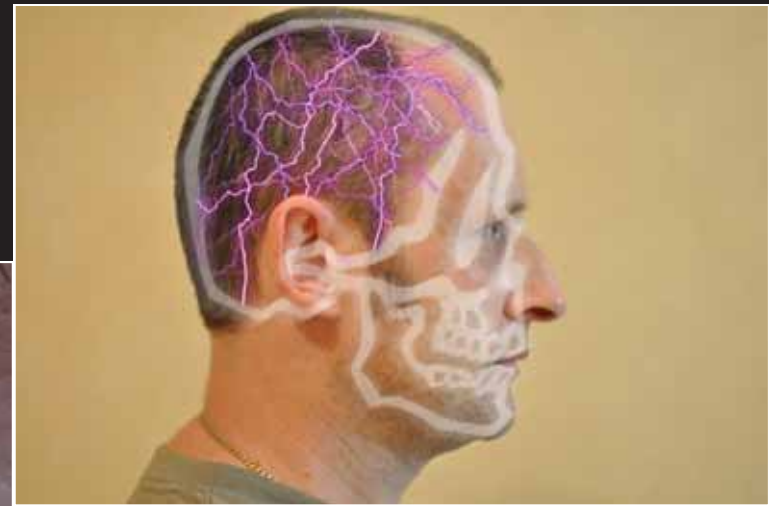

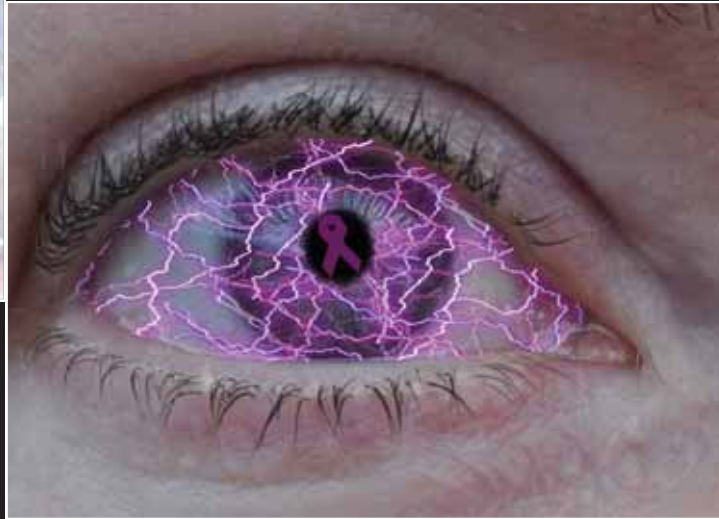

No. 67 Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
Title: Purple ribbon epilepsy

My friend who has epilepsy pregnant with twin girls. She has now 5 children.

No. 68

No. 69

No. 70

- No. 68    Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
 Title: Vision of Epilepsy
 Focusing on Epilepsy.
- No. 69    Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
 Title: The ribbons vision
 Purple ribbon in the iris represents hope.
- No. 70    Photographer: Cheryl Hall, Australia
 Title: Electrical effect
 Human brain and the electricity within.

No. 71    Photographer: Ching-Tzu Yang, Taiwan
Title: Changing fate - conquering epilepsy
This mountain is like her illness. She conquered epilepsy.

No. 72      Photographer: Christopher Maguire, UK
Title: Alone but not lost
Feeling of being alone.

No. 73    Photographer: Chyong-Mei (FiFi) Chang, Taiwan
Title: Who's more scared?
I can't be sure how you look at me when I'm like this, but this is how I imagine it.

No. 74    Photographer: Claudio Martinelli, Italy
Title: And set us free from the obscure disease
The seriousness of the symptoms and the hope for a healing.

No. 75    Photographer: Cristobal Asencio, Chile
Title: Why me?
Shot in San Pedro, Concepcion, Chile.

No. 76    Photographer: Damir Sloković, Hungary
Title: And world goes around
Shot in the Julian Alps, Bovec, Slovenia.

No. 77    Photographer: Dan Lavric, Romania
Title: First Light
Lonely girl looking out the window

No. 78    Photographer: Daniel Harris, USA
Title: I of the Storm
Seizure Victim: The human centre of the storm.

No. 79    Photographer: Daniel Wawondatu, Indonesia
Title: Can I ride that, mom?
Shot in Java, Indonesia.

No. 80    Photographer: Danilo Victoriano, Philippines
Title: Live a normal happy life
People with epilepsy live a normal happy life.