International Bureau for Epilepsy 10th December 2007

Dear All

I am very happy to announce that the new website of IBE is ready to launch! Due to tremendous efforts by the IBE Website Task Force chaired by Dr Shung-Ion Lai, and the IBE office, the redesigned website is close to completion in advance of going alive.

The structure has been modernised with great opportunities for visitors to have a broad picture about the great range of activities carried out within the IBE.

NEW WEBSITE!

Another important element of the website is a special focus on regional information, contact details and updates from the Regional Executive Committees.

IBE also hopes to further develop the possibility to facilitate communications through the website. Special sections for networking, for example the Editors Network, have been set up in order to change experiences and ideas without the need to meet in person. Of course the website cannot replace interaction between people but it can certainly increase and encourage communication.

The website of IBE is the major face of the Bureau throughout the world. It has been important for us to have a positive and attractive design, easy to read and easy to manage. This has been made possible with the great assistance of Val Cassidy.

A website, no matter how fantastic it performs, is a growing and changing object. In the coming months we will continue to add information and details. I welcome you all to contribute ideas and feed-back in order to make the website a useful tool, providing information as well as stimulating communication.

Best wishes to all!

Susanne Lund
President
