

Executive Meets in Glasgow
Introducing Tarun Dua
Teratogenicity of Antiepileptic Drugs

Help us make IE News an even better read!

By taking a few moments to complete this questionnaire, you can provide some important information that will help us decide the future direction of the newsletter.

Select the box next to your preferred answers. When finished, simply click the Submit by Email button and you're done!

1. How would you rate the quality of photographs and graphics as well as the general layout of the magazine?

- very good good acceptable poor no opinion

2. How would you rate the quality of written reports and articles?

- very good good acceptable poor no opinion

3. How would you rate reporting on the work and activities of the International Executive Committee?

- very good good acceptable poor no opinion

4. How would you rate access to and information on the activities of the Regional Committees?

- very good good acceptable poor no opinion

5. How would you rate information on regional and international epilepsy congresses?

- very good good acceptable poor no opinion

6. How useful do you find IE News and how does it match your expectations?

- very useful quite useful acceptable not useful no opinion

7. Is English your mother tongue?

- Yes No

8. As the official language of IBE, English is the main language used in IE News. Would you consider this a limiting factor for readers?

- Yes No

9. Do you use the IBE website to access the IE News?

- Yes No

10. If you answered No to question 9, did you know that the magazine is now available on the website?

- Yes No

11. Do you have any suggestions on how we might improve the quality and use of IE News?

Please type in your comments

Thank you for taking the time to complete this short questionnaire!

With best wishes, Carlos Acevedo, Editor, International Epilepsy News