

CALL FOR ARTWORK FOR ART EXHIBITION AT THE 14th AOEC

Image: Brain On Fire: Stigma (Sarah Brown)

We are delighted to announce a call for entries for the art exhibition at the 14th Asian & Oceanian Epilepsy Congress (AOEC) on the theme of "Stigma."

The call is open to everyone of any age, including people with epilepsy and their carers, doctors, nurses, social workers, etc.

All entries will be included in the online art exhibition as an image gallery featured as part of the virtual 14th AOEC.

Entries will automatically go forward to a global competition to mark International Epilepsy Day, which takes place on February 13th, 2023. The theme of International Epilepsy Day 2023 will also focus on the theme of stigma.

Categories

Artwork accepted for the exhibition falls into the following categories:

- Painting or drawing
- Photomontage
- Pottery
- Sculpture
- Beadwork, embroidery, or needlework

Entry rules

- A contestant may submit no more than 3 pieces of art.
- The theme of the entry should reflect an aspect of epilepsy stigma.
- Submission should be by way of a scan or photo of the artwork in jpeg or png format.
- The quality of scans or photos is the responsibility of the art exhibition entrant.
- Entrants must complete the Entry Form. Entrants under 12 years of age may have the entry form completed on their behalf by a parent or guardian.
- Each entry must be the original work of the contestant, must have a title (in English), and also include (in English) a short description of the idea and meaning of the artwork (recommended at a maximum of 200 words).
- By submitting an entry to the art exhibition, the contestant agrees to grant IBE, free of charge, the right to publish the artwork online, in other IBE media, or as part of an exhibition.

All entries should be sent along with the entry form before the closing date of Friday, November 4th, 2022. No late entries will be accepted.

We look forward to receiving your submissions!
